

We aim to provide a caring community where children can grow up confidently and happily, providing opportunities to develop their potential to the full.

Horningsham School Aims

Underpinning this is the school's overarching aim to promote the mental, spiritual, moral, cultural and physical development of all of the pupils by presenting them with a stimulating and challenging experience of school which encourages them to achieve the highest standards in each of these aspects of their lives.